Clarifications:

1. Criminal Background — Police Clearance

Costa Rica requires an official police clearance certificate from the country of nationality and recent residence.

2. Tax Returns

When formal business tax returns are unavailable, immigration authorities may accept alternative evidence that clearly demonstrates business income amount, source, and continuity over time.

Secondary Evidence:

CPA or accountant income summary letter

Must be prepared by a licensed accountant or tax professional.

Year-end financial statements

Annual financial summaries prepared by an accountant or accounting system.

Business bank statements showing revenue

Bank statements from business accounts showing consistent revenue deposits.

3. Profit & Loss Statements

When formal profit and loss statements are unavailable, immigration authorities may accept alternative evidence that demonstrates business profitability and income stability.

Secondary Evidence:

Accountant-prepared financial summaries

Financial summaries or reports prepared by a licensed accountant.

Business bank statements

Bank statements showing consistent business income deposits minus expenses.

Accounting software reports

P&L reports generated from recognized accounting platforms (QuickBooks, Xero, etc.).

4. Income Duration — 12-Month Requirement

Costa Rica's Digital Nomad visa requires proof of stable business income for at least 12 consecutive months. This is a mandatory requirement with no exceptions.

Next Steps:

- Unfortunately, you do not currently meet the mandatory requirements for Costa Rica's
- Digital Nomad visa.
- If your situation changes in the future, you may reapply once all requirements are
- satisfied.
